

Free School Meals Guidance

Eligibility Criteria

Free school meals are available to children whose parents are in receipt of:

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseekers Allowance
- An income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Child Tax Credit (provided they are not entitled to Working Tax Credit) and have an annual income that does not exceed £16,190 (as assessed by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs)
- or
- the Guarantee element of State Pension Credit

In addition to the above

- Proof of Parent/Legal Carer status if making a claim under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999,
- Receipt of Working Tax Credit does not meet the eligibility criteria for free school meals with the exception of:

Where a parent is entitled to Working Tax Credit during the four-week period immediately after their employment ceases, or after they start to work less than 16 hours per week, their children are entitled to free school lunches.

Process

1. An application form is to be completed and must include the name of each child who is eligible for free school meals. See eligibility criteria above. Forms are available to download from the RBC Website:
<http://www.reading.lgov.uk/schoolmeals>
2. The application form and evidence to support the claim should be given to your child's school each term.
 - See table overleaf for required forms of evidence that are acceptable in support of the claim
